UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT EASTERN DIVISION OF NEW YORK 18-06709 KAM-RER TARASMATTI NAGES-SAR Plaintiff, Against NORTHEAST ALLIANCE MORTGAGE BANKING CORP.; and DOES 1-10, Inclusive, Defendant [AMENDED] PETITION FOR QUIET TITLE

Comes now, TARASMATTI NAGES-SAR, (Plaintiff in Pro Per) in good faith, presents and moves this Court for Quiet Title action against Defendant NORTHWEST ALLIANCE MORTGAGE BANKING CORP.

1. Plaintiff is and was at all relevant times herein resident of the City of Brooklyn, New York, County of Kings, State of New York.

2. The subject property of the Plaintiff is within the County of Kings.

3. The address of the real property belonging to the Plaintiff is 111 Euclid Avenue, Brooklyn, New York 11208.

4. The legal description of the real property belonging to the Plaintiff is

5. Defendant NORTHWEST ALLIANCE MORTGAGE BANKING CORP. ("NAMBC"), is believed to be a Texas corporation doing business in County of Harris, State of TX

6. This Court has jurisdiction over these matters, and this Court is the proper venue for adjudication.

7. The Plaintiff has at all time relevant herein been the sole owner and possessor of the Property.

8. That Defendant NAMBC has clouded Plaintiff's title and encumbered the property without any right to do so.

9. That Defendant NAMBC has recorded fraudulent documents against the title of Plaintiff's property in Kings County (NY) Recorder's Office thereby making the Plaintiff's title unmarketable.

10. Defendant NAMBC's encumbering and clouding the title of the Subject Property has made it unmarketable. However, after fighting for 3+ years, in February 2020, Plaintiff secured a trial loan modification from the Lender, but the matter regarding title still exists. (Loan Modification attached hereto as Exhibit "A"). Nevertheless, the Lender requested that Plaintiff have title quieted in her favor within 90 days from the date of signing the trial loan modification in order to receive a permanent loan modification. It is only because of COVID-19 and the delays it caused with the courts and day-to-day business, that her loss mitigation file has not been closed. This matter is causing Plaintiff so many problems, she is hanging on by a thread. But she keeps making payments and is looking forward to securing a permanent modification and putting this all behind her.

11. Plaintiff is a Pro Per litigant and has done everything this Honorable Court has requested of her. She attempted service via mail, certified mail and publication in 2 separate newspapers in Harris County, the County of Defendant's last known address. (Both publications attached as Exhibit "B"). After doing all of this, Plaintiff thought she would be granted a Default Judgment so that she could clear title as per her Lender's request. But, much to her dismay, her request was denied. Therefore she submits her amended petition with hopes that this court rules in her favor.

PRAYER

Plaintiff hereby prays that

this Honorable Court:

1. Issue an order/judgment quieting title against Defendant NAMBC, and in favor of Plaintiff decreeing and declaring that the Property is owned and possessed by Plaintiff TARASMATTI NAGESAR; and

2. Issue and order/judgment declaring that any and all documentation recorded by Defendant NORTHWEST ALLIANCE MORTGAGE BANKING CORP., in Kings County Recorder's Office against the Subject Property, be deemed fraudulent, invalid and vacated;

3. Grant Plaintiff the requested Default Judgment that she so desperately needs.

Respectfully submitted,
Dated: July 21, 2021 By:
Tarasmatti Nagessar

people, including lack of access to quality health care, more crowded living conditions, and a greater share of the population in lower-paying jobs that required them to keep working when the pandemic was at its worst, experts said.

Life expectancy is an estimate of the average number of years a baby born in a given year might expect to live. It's an important statistical snapshot of a country's health that can be influenced both by sustained trends such as obesity as well as more temporary threats like pandemics or war that might not endanger those newborns in their lifetimes.

For decades, U.S. life expectancy was on the upswing. But that trend stalled in 2015, for several years, before hitting 78 years, 10 months in 2019. Last year, the CDC said, it dropped to about 77 years, 4 months.

Other findings in the new CDC report:

—Hispanic Americans have longer life expectancy than white or Black Americans, but had the largest decline in 2020. The three-year drop was the largest since the CDC started tracking Hispanic life expectancy 15 years ago.

—Black life expectancy dropped nearly three years, to 71 years, 10 months. It has not been that low since 2000.

—White life expectancy fell by roughly 14 months to about 77 years, 7 months. That was the lowest the lowest life expectancy for that population since 2002.

—COVID-19's role varied by race and ethnicity. The coronavirus was responsible for 90% of the decline in life expectancy among Hispanics, 68% among white people and 59% among Black Americans.

—Life expectancy fell nearly two years for men, but about one year for women, widening a longstanding gap. The CDC estimated life expectancy of 74 years, 6 months for boys vs. 80 years, 2 months for girls.

states where ultra right-wing challengers are tapping into anger among Republicans over Trump's election loss and coronavirus-related lockdowns. Some incumbents suddenly are scrambling to defend their right flank, heating up their own rhetoric on social media and ripping into President Joe Biden at every opportunity.

In Texas, GOP Gov. Greg Abbott, who faces a contested reelection primary next year, is pushing looser gun laws than he ever previously embraced and proposing unprecedented state actions, including promises to build more walls on the Mexican border.

"I think it's unquestionably attributable to the aftermath of the 2020 election and the insurrection and former President Trump's claims of voter fraud," said Alan Abramowitz, a political science professor at Emory University in Atlanta.

Some conservative incumbents are obvious targets for right-wing challenges — notably U.S. Reps. Liz Cheney in Wyoming and Anthony Gonzalez in Ohio, who voted to impeach Trump. Georgia Gov. Brian Kemp's offense was refusing to block Georgia's electoral votes from being awarded to Biden.

But with the 2022 election cycle approaching, the backlash is also touching even those who backed Trump consistently through countless controversies. Texas' Abbott echoed Trump's partisan positions and has banked $55 million in campaign funds, more than any sitting governor in history.

But he's drawn a challenge from Allen West, who until recently was the chairman of the Texas GOP. West, a tea party firebrand and former Florida congressman, has attacked Abbott's leadership after Democrats temporarily thwarted a GOP voting bill by decamping to Washington.

worked for more than 20 years taking down drug dealers and traffickers in the U.S., Mexico and in South America, said he'll never forget being cheered on by residents in a predominantly Hispanic neighborhood near Los Angeles as he led away drug traffickers in handcuffs.

"That gave me a sense of the reality of the people that live in these neighborhoods, that are powerless because they're afraid that the drug dealers that control the street, that control the neighborhood are going to do them and their children harm," said Gonzalez, 64, who detailed his field experiences in the recently released memoir "Narco Legenda."

"We realized then that, along with dismantling (drug trafficking) organizations, there was also a real need to clean up communities, to go to where the crime was and help people that are helpless," he said.

Still, the law enforcement approach has led to many long-lasting consequences for people who have since reformed. Lucas still wonders what would happen for him and his family if he no longer carried the weight of a drug-related conviction on his record.
