You have been named as a defendant in the Petition and Statement in Condemnation (the "Petition") filed by the West Harris County Regional Water Authority (the "Authority") on March 8, 2022, styled WEST HARRIS COUNTY REGIONAL WATER AUTHORITY VS. THOMAS A. HUTCHESON, ET AL. and pending as Cause Number 1182128 on the docket of the County Civil Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas.

This is an eminent domain proceeding, in which the Authority is acquiring a permanent and perpetual easement and right-of-way (the "Easement") on, in, across, along, under, over, upon, through, and within certain real property situated in Harris County for the construction, installation, operation, and maintenance of facilities for the transportation and delivery of water to and within its boundaries, the property to be subject to such Easement being more particularly described as follows: A 0.0492-acre (2,145 square feet) parcel of land situated in the T.S. Lubbock Survey, Abstract No. 508, Harris County, Texas, as more particularly described and depicted in Exhibit A to the Petition, and being part of the residue of a called 100-acre tract of land described in the Deed to Allen C. Hutcheson, Fred W. Sultan, Jr., Lawrence O'Donnell, and Eugene D. O'Donnell executed on June 11, 1957 and recorded in Volume 3356, Page 458 of the Deed Records of Harris County, Texas. You are hereby notified that you may own or hold an interest in the above-described land.

You are further given notice that the undersigned Special Commissioners will, at 10:00 a.m. on June 15, 2022, which is the first Wednesday next after the expiration of 42 days from May 3, 2022, the date of issuance of this citation, hold a hearing to assess the fair market value of the easement rights, herein described and as more particularly described in the Petition, to be acquired by the Authority through such condemnation proceeding. The hearing will be held at the following location: Regus, Congress Conference Room, 13th Floor, Pennzoil Place, North Tower, 700 Milam Street, Suite 1300, Houston, Texas 77002.

You are further given notice that, in accordance with the Emergency Orders issued by the Texas Supreme Court in response to the COVID-19 pandemic, including but not limited to the Forty-Ninth Emergency Order dated March 22, 2022, as well as the current guidance (effective May 2021) issued by the Office of Court Administration with respect to the conduct of court proceedings, anyone – including but not limited to a party, attorney, witness, court reporter, or Special Commissioner – may participate in the hearing remotely by Zoom videoconference or teleconference. Should you wish to participate remotely, you may contact the Authority's counsel, identified below, to obtain the link through which you must register for and obtain access to the hearing.

The Authority is represented by its attorneys, Frederick D. Junkin and Elly Austin Vecchio of Phelps Dunbar LLP, who may be contacted at 910 Louisiana Street, Suite 4300, Houston, Texas 77002, (713) 626-1386.

Defendants are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and timely file objections to the Award of Special Commissioners to be entered at the conclusion of the above-referenced hearing, judgment by default may be rendered against you for the relief demanded in the Petition.

Issued under my hand and the seal of the Court at Harris County, Texas, on the 3rd day of May, 2022.

/s/ Laolu Davies-Yemitan, Special Commissioner

/s/ Steven Duble, Special Commissioner

only to see a short-term and muted impact on gas prices. He's also launched efforts to help ports clear shipping containers faster.

The administration has also proposed greater enforcement of antitrust and other laws in hopes of reducing prices for consumers, while arguing that federal deficit reduction would also help. Yet Biden's domestic agenda faces an unclear path in Congress.

Powell has pledged to keep ratcheting up the Fed's key short-term interest rate to cool the economy until inflation is "coming down in a clear and convincing way." Those rate hikes have spurred fears that the Fed, in its drive to slow borrowing and spending, may push the economy into recession. That concern has caused sharp drops in stock prices in the past two months, though markets rallied last week.

Powell has signaled that the Fed will likely raise its benchmark rate by a half-point in both June and July — twice the size of the usual rate increase.

Democratic colleagues on strengthening background checks and "red flag" laws allowing authorities to remove firearms from those determined to be a danger to themselves or others.

"I think it felt cathartic for a lot of people that maybe might have been on the fence," said Abel Prado, executive director of the Democratic advocacy group Cambio Texas. "It gives you, 'At least somebody's trying to stand up and do something, or at least say something.'"

O'Rourke spent two nights in Uvalde after the shooting, then headed to Houston for a rally against gun violence outside Friday's meeting of the NRA.

"To those men and women in positions of power who care more about your power than using that power to save the lives of those that you are supposed to serve we will defeat you and we will overcome you," O'Rourke told protesters who chanted his name and the phrase "Vote them out!"

Supporters hope O'Rourke recaptures the magic that saw him become a national Democratic star and nearly upset Republican Sen. Ted Cruz in 2018. But since then, O'Rourke's White House bid fizzled, former President Donald Trump easily won Texas in 2020 and Democrats who had hoped to flip scores of congressional and legislative seats in the state that year lost nearly every top race.

A Democrat also hasn't won Texas' governorship since 1990, and, just last year, the state loosened firearm restrictions enough to allow virtually any resident age 21 and older to carry guns without a license. Abbott signed that law alongside NRA CEO Wayne LaPierre and the group's president, Carolyn Meadows.

picked candidates for secretary of state and, to a lesser extent, governor.

Gov. Brian Kemp did not ultimately need Democrats in his blowout victory against his Trump-backed opponent, but Raffensperger probably did. The Republican secretary of state cleared the 50% threshold required to avoid a runoff election by just over 27,000 votes, according to the latest AP tallies. Based on early voting data alone, 37,144 former Democrats voted in the Republican primary. The total number of crossovers including Election Day votes, set to be revealed in the coming weeks, may be even higher.

Crossover voting, also known as strategic voting, is not exclusive to Georgia this primary season as voters across the political spectrum work to stop Trump-backed extremists from winning control of state and federal governments. The phenomenon is playing out in multiple primary contests, sometimes organically and sometimes in response to a coordinated effort by Trump's opponents.

professor at John Jay College of Criminal Justice in New York, is why a school district police chief had the power to tell more than a dozen officers to wait in a hallway at Uvalde's Robb Elementary.

"The key question for me is, who designated him to be in charge?" she said.

Officials have said he believed the suspect was barricaded inside adjoining classrooms and there was no longer an active threat. But school police officers don't typically have the most experience with active shooters, and Haberfeld questioned why people with more specialized training didn't take the reins.

A U.S. Border Patrol tactical team finally used a janitor's key to unlock the classroom door and kill the gunman, raising more questions about the choice of entry.

"It's not some fortified castle from the Middle Ages. It's a door," she said. "They knew what to do. You don't need the key."
